

GENERAL REGULATIONS FOR EXHIBITIONS

ORGANISED BY REED EXPOSITIONS FRANCE

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 - General

The terms and conditions for the organisation of the show, particularly the opening date, closing date, location, prices and authorised visitors are set by the organiser and may be unilaterally modified by it.

The organiser may cancel or postpone the show if it notes an insufficient number of registered attendees. The exhibitor's down-payment or attendance fee is then refunded. The exhibitor declares to be aware of the possibility of a cancellation and accepts all risks relating to the possibility of the show not being held and particularly exclusive liability for the costs it incurs in preparation for the show.

In the event that, for major, unforeseeable or economic reasons (such as fire, flooding, destruction, accidents, acts of God, local or national strikes, riots, security risks, storms, terrorist threats, health emergencies, whether local, national or international), the show cannot be held, the admission requests are cancelled and the amounts left, after payment of the expenses incurred, are divided between the exhibitors, in proportion to the amounts paid by each of them.

The exhibitor entrusts to the organiser the task of assessing whether the show must be suspended or evacuated in the event of a threat to visitors' safety and agrees to not subsequently lodge a complaint as a result.

The exhibitor shall undertake to respect and shall ensure that are respected, the instructions contained in the Exhibitor Services Manual which shall be transmitted to him or shall be available for consultation on the internet and/or exhibitor extranet.

The exhibitor is responsible to the organiser for non-observance of the schedule of conditions ("le cahier des charges") established by the owner or the tenant of the site placed at the disposal of the Exhibition organiser.

The organiser is not liable for any consequences arising from the enforcement of the provisions of these general regulations.

PARTICIPATION

Article 2 - Conditions for participation

2.1. The organiser determines the categories of exhibitors and draws up the list of products and/or services presented.

An exhibitor may only present goods or services manufactured or designed by it or for which it is the representative or dealer; in the latter case, it appends to its attendance request the list of brands whose products or services it proposes to promote.

The organiser may, after examination, exclude products and/or services that it deems do not meet the aim of the show or include products and/or services not included on its list but that are of interest for the show.

Sales including immediate on-site delivery to the buyer are prohibited.

In accordance with the provisions relating to trade events, an exhibitor may neither present products that do not comply with French regulations, except products intended for foreign markets, nor carry out any misleading or abusive advertising.

The offer presented by exhibitors must comply with public policy and current laws. Accordingly, exhibitors are formally prohibited from exhibiting illegal products or products from illegal activities. It is also prohibited for any persons not authorised by law to propose services or products from regulated activities. Legal action may be brought against exhibitors who breach these provisions without prejudice to any measures taken by the organiser in order to end this breach.

Exhibitors accept full liability for their products and actions in relation to third parties: the organiser cannot, under any circumstances, be held liable. In case of request made by a third party against the organiser concerning an act or product of an exhibitor, the exhibitor shall indemnify the organizer for all costs reasonably incurred by the organizer for his defense and possible court ruling he may incur.

2.2. Surveillance of equipment - Liability

Artworks and all of the elements and equipment brought to its stand throughout the fair shall remain the exhibitor's sole responsibility and risk 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, during transport to and from the venue (stand included), handling, installation, and dismantling included. Under no circumstances shall the organiser be held liable concerning any of these elements.

The exhibitor expressly accepts sole responsibility for all of the risks that the above-mentioned elements and equipment may be exposed to. While respecting the security regulations, (s)he must take all measures likely to protect the artworks and equipment against said risks; under no circumstances shall these measures be incumbent to the organiser. It is notably the exhibitor's role to decide the conditions of surveillance of said artworks and equipment (safe, secure glass case, assigning of its own guards at the stand, etc.).

Insofar as necessary, all of the above shall apply through express exemption from any conflicting legal provision(s).

Article 3 - Applications

3.1 Any person wishing to exhibit must present an application of participation to the organiser. Unless the organiser does not accept the application, the submission thereof shall be a binding and irrevocable undertaking to pay the full price of the organisation services and associated costs.

3.2 Applications form online:

Any person that wishes to exhibit must submit an application form. Unless the organiser refuses the application, the registration of this application form constitutes a firm and irrevocable commitment to pay the totality of the cost of the provision of the coordination services and related costs.

Once the application form has been submitted online, the exhibitor must ensure that the user name and password (or encrypted URL where applicable) that was communicated by the organiser are in fact used by a representative of the exhibitor who is duly authorised to engage the exhibitor's liability. The user name and password (or encrypted URL where applicable) are strictly personal and cannot therefore be shared with any third parties. The exhibitor must ensure that it is kept safe and confidential. Any submission of an application undertaken by means of the user name and password (or encrypted URL where applicable) shall be deemed to have been made by a duly authorised representative of the exhibitor. By express agreement between the Parties, it is agreed that the use of the username and password (or encrypted URL where applicable) by the exhibitor for the online submission of an application form equates to the exhibitor's signature as defined by the provisions of section 1316-4 of the French Civil Code and hence acceptance of the provisions of said application form, which includes the provisions of the present general regulations. By express agreement between the Parties, it is agreed that this signature is to be conclusively deemed reliable.

Article 4 - Control of admissions

The organiser is not obliged to justify his decisions concerning applications.

In the event that participation is refused, any sums paid by the party having presented an application of participation will be repaid, after deduction of administrative expenses incurred by the organiser and which remain due to him. The same provision applies to a party having presented an application of participation placed on the waiting list, to whom an exhibition space cannot be allocated for lack of available space when the Exhibition opens.

Acceptance of the application is confirmed by the reply from the organiser to the exhibitor. This reply may be in the form of an invoice addressed to the exhibitor. However, under no circumstances may it be an automatic email reply addressed to the exhibitor following an online submission.

Despite initial acceptance by the organiser and even after allocation of an exhibition space, the organiser is allowed, without restriction, to cancel an application of participation from an exhibitor whose affairs are, for whatever reason, administered by, or with the assistance of a trustee in bankruptcy.

This applies notably to any application by a company apparently in cessation of payments between the date of the application and the Exhibition opening date.

However, where a company is authorised by a court to continue its operations, the organiser may, of his will, decide to maintain the application.

Article 5 - Use of the exhibition space

Without the organiser's prior consent in writing, an exhibitor, within the framework of the organisation services he acquired, shall not transfer, sub-let or share, with or without payment, all or part of his space or services which he has within the Exhibition.

Nonetheless, several exhibitors may be authorised to make a joint presentation, on condition that each of them has obtained prior permission from the organiser and has submitted a joint attendance request.

Article 6 - Withdrawal

In the event of withdrawal or non-occupancy of the exhibition space for any reason whatsoever, or in the event of cancellation of booth equipment and various options, amounts partially or fully paid and/or outstanding, for the organisation services and incidental costs, are the property of the organiser even if another exhibitor uses the exhibition space.

An exhibitor shall be deemed to have withdrawn if, for any reason whatsoever he should fail to take possession of his exhibition space 24 hours before the day on which the Exhibition is due to open. The organiser may therefore dispose of the defaulting exhibitor's exhibition space and the latter shall have no right to claim a refund or compensation, and take off any visual communication regarding the defaulting exhibitor's products.

FINANCIAL CONDITIONS

Article 7 - Price of the organisation services

The price of the organisation services is decided by the organiser and may be revised by the organiser if there is a modification to tax charges.

Article 8 - Terms of payment

Payment for the organisation services and other associated costs is to be made by the settlement dates and by methods fixed by the organiser.

For any late attendance request, the first payment is equal to the sums already payable on the attendance request date.

The same applies to exhibitors on the waiting list who are belatedly allocated an exhibition space.

Article 9 - Failure to pay

If an exhibitor should fail to pay on due dates and by the specifications stipulated in the preceding article, the organiser shall be entitled to apply the conditions contained in article 6 "Withdrawal". Moreover, any late payment shall also entail the application of interest at the Eonia rate increased by five (5) points. This interest shall be due as of right, and shall be calculated against the aforementioned sum from the date upon which the payment should have been made until the effective date of payment.

A recovery fee of 40 euros will be automatically due to the organiser in case of any failure to pay on due dates. Such fee will be due in addition to any indemnity due to the debtor.

EXHIBITION SPACES

Article 10 - Allocation of exhibition spaces

The organiser draws up the show plan and allocates the areas freely, taking account if possible of the requests made by the exhibitor, of the type of products and/or services it presents, the layout of the exhibition space that it proposes to install as well as, if necessary, the date of registration of the attendance request.

Due to its role in coordinating or organising, the organiser may be forced to modify the size and layout of the areas requested by the exhibitor. Such modification shall not entitle the exhibitor to unilaterally terminate his engagement to participate.

An exhibitor is notified of the location of the exhibition space and as a result the visual communication allocated to him by means of a layout. This layout gives the characteristics of the exhibition space as precisely as possible. Where possible, it is the exhibitor's responsibility to verify the conformity of the layout before setting up his exhibition space.

The organiser is not liable for any difference between the characteristics given on the layout and the actual measurements of the exhibition space.

The layout shows the general layout of the other exhibition spaces surrounding the site allocated.

These indications, valid on the date the layout is drawn up, are given for information only and are liable to modifications which may not be able to be communicated to the exhibitor.

Any complaints about the position shown on the plan must be submitted within eight days of receipt of the plan by the exhibitor. Beyond this deadline, the proposed position is considered to have been accepted by the exhibitor.

The organiser cannot under any circumstances either reserve a position or guarantee the same position from year to year. Furthermore, attendance of previous events does not give the exhibitor any rights based on this previous attendance.

Article 11 - Installation and decoration of exhibition spaces

Exhibition spaces installation is in accordance with the plans drawn up by the organiser.

Exhibitors are solely responsible for the specific decoration of their own exhibition spaces. They shall comply with safety regulations issued by the public authorities and adhere to the general layout for decoration and signage drawn up by the organiser.

The organiser decides the specifications of how visual information is displayed and the conditions governing the use of all sound, light or audio-visual techniques, as well as the conditions under which all promotional activities, surveys may be carried out within the confines of the Exhibition.

In the same way, the organiser decides on the conditions in which photography or sound recording is authorised within the confines of the Exhibition. The organiser may make its permission dependent on the signing, by the attendee, of an agreement to transfer to it the rights for the promotion of the show.

The organiser reserves the right to require that any fitting detrimental to the general appearance of the Exhibition, to neighbouring exhibitors or the public, or which does not conform to the layout and model submitted for his prior approval, shall be removed or modified. The organiser may withdraw an authorisation already given in the event of hindrance caused to neighbouring exhibitors, to circulation or to the running of the Exhibition.

Promotional announcements and recruitment, irrespective of the fashion in which they are carried out, are formally prohibited.

Prospectuses, brochures, catalogues and/or documents relating to the products and brands exhibited, may only be distributed by exhibitors on their stand. Their distribution on the event site and in its immediate surroundings is strictly prohibited.

Article 12 - Deinstallation

The organiser declines all responsibility for structures or installations built by exhibitors. Exhibitors shall accept and leave the sites as delivered, and shall be liable for any damage, in particular to venue halls and venue equipment, caused by themselves or by their installations, equipment or goods.

ASSEMBLY / DISASSEMBLY DEADLINES

Article 13 - Assembly and disassembly of the exhibition space

The organiser sets the schedule for the assembly and disassembly of the exhibition spaces prior to the opening of the show and for the removal of products, as well as the deadlines for tidying after the show.

The exhibitor guarantees that its installer will arrive in sufficient time, prior to the disassembly deadline, in order to enable the proper return of the position in its initial condition, within the deadline set by the organiser.

The organiser may have carried out, at the exhibitor's expense and risk, work that has not been carried out by the exhibitor within the deadlines set and without being held liable for total or partial damage or losses, which the exhibitor unreservedly accepts.

In the event of non-disassembly of the stand by the exhibitor within the given deadlines, the organiser shall be entitled to destroy the stand without being held liable to the exhibitor for the value for the goods and components of the stand that are destroyed.

Furthermore, failure by an exhibitor to meet the booth occupancy deadline authorises the organiser to claim the payment of late-occupancy penalties and damages.

Article 14 - Specific authorisations

Any installation of machines, equipment or structures which cannot be carried out without using exhibitor space allocated to another exhibitor may only be done with the authorisation of the organiser and on the date fixed by him.

Article 15 - Goods

Each exhibitor personally provides for the transport and receipt of goods delivered to it. It must follow the organiser's instructions regarding goods delivery and pick-up regulations, particularly regarding movement of vehicles and service providers on the show premises.

Products and equipment installed on the show premises cannot, on any grounds whatsoever, be removed during the show.

- as well as for any consequential and/or non-consequential non-material damage, and particularly operating losses, suffered by the exhibitor and for which the lessor is liable, irrespective of the cause thereof.

The exhibitor irrevocably agrees that the insurance policies that it takes out include an identical waiver of recourse by its insurers.

Compensation is then due by the exhibitor as damages for the damage caused to the event. This compensation is at least equal to the attendance fee, which remains the property of the organiser, without prejudice to any additional damages claimed. The exhibitor grants as a guarantee to the organiser a lien on the exhibited items, furniture and decorations belonging to it.

In the event of contradiction between the provisions of these General Rules and the terms of purchase of an exhibitor, it is agreed that the provisions of these General Rules prevail.

Article 33 - Modification of the regulations

The organiser reserves the right to rule on any cases not covered by these rules and to add new provisions whenever it deems this necessary for the smooth running of the show.

The nullity, for any reason whatsoever, of all or part of one of the provisions of these rules shall not affect in any manner the other provisions thereof. In such event, the Parties agree to negotiate in good faith to agree on a provision having insofar as possible an equivalent effect.

Article 34 - Limited liability

The aforementioned attendance fee includes, definitively, the amount excl. VAT featured on the attendance request signed by the exhibitor, irrespective of subsequent circumstances, such as amendments made in accordance with article 7, or the termination of the contract.

In the event that the exhibitor receives benefits in accordance with the insurance policy mentioned in article 18, these benefits are accordingly deducted from any sum due by the organiser to the exhibitor; if a sum has already been paid by the organiser to the exhibitor, the aforementioned benefits are paid on by the exhibitor to the organiser.

This clause applies even if the third party or member of staff for which the organiser is liable has committed gross negligence, wilful or even intentional misconduct.

This clause applies even in the event of termination of the contract.

Article 35 - Objections - Time-barring

In the event of objection or dispute, irrespective of the grounds therefor, the exhibitor agrees to submit its complaint to the organiser, prior to any proceedings, by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt. Any legal action brought prior to the expiry of a period of 15 days following receipt of the aforementioned letter shall be inadmissible.

In accordance with article 2254 of the French Civil Code (Code Civil), the parties agree to set at one year (1 year) the limit for the time-barring of rights and legal action relating to the liability that the organiser is likely to incur either as a result of its own actions, even of a member of staff, or as a result of the actions of a third party, irrespective of the cause thereof. This period shall run from the expiry of the period of 15 days specified in the previous paragraph.
